An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,

I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

EIGHTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

Back in June, the CBS Sunday Morning show presented a feature about a hobby spawned by the Covid 19 lock down, one with devotees famous and non. It's making and baking bread in your home kitchen. Housebound as we were in those early bouts with the virus, people had the time, if not the talent, but learned by doing of the fun involved in creating wonderful varieties of bread. This not to omit mention of those enticing aromas emanating from their ovens just shy of that first taste. This offset the imbalance generated by a paranoia over carbohydrates. After all, who can imagine a delectable sandwich without the bread?

With this weekend's Readings in mind, especially Isaiah's talk of a banquet and Our Lord's miracle of feeding the crowd, it was natural for me to think about a link with this current fad. We human folk love our bread, as the supermarket aisle testifies to so many commercially made varieties of it. When it isn't handy, some respond by making their own.

Apply those thoughts to the special Bread, that of the Eucharist. While most of our parishes and other institutions delegate the chore of making and baking the unleavened bread to others, still we know the Holy Eucharist as bread par excellence after the Consecration at Mass.

Among the many lessons to be gleaned from the pandemic shutdown is the fact that our Christian life is weakened and left hungry without this Gift of His Divine Son.

Unfortunately, too many other people who call themselves Catholic have actually fallen prey to a worse kind of pandemic than Covid 19: loss of faith in the Mass and the Holy Eucharist. They must have decided somewhere along the line to disregard what Our Lord said about the bread and wine followed by a very clear directive to "Do this in memory of Me." I pray for them and let their judgment go to the One who said that.

Meanwhile, we sinful but repentant believers have our hands full just being faithful these days. That Jesus chose this humble method of identifying Himself with a host of bread and a cup of wine is remarkable, imaginative, and loving. In fact, it's divine. No wonder that the Eucharist is called "the true treasure of our Church." Hardly a hobby and never a fad.

By the way, if you're going to be baking any bread, making the best of things with your limited "domestic tranquility," invite some friends over for a slice. Maybe even a whole loaf. That would be a reminder of the kinship the Eucharist promotes.

"It is the greatest of all mistakes to do nothing because you can only do a little. Do what you can." (Sydney Smith, English wit and Anglican clergyman.) – God love you and give you His peace!

Saint Peter tells the epic story about the key event in European and world history: the spread of Christianity throughout the Roman Empire, focusing on the leader of that new religion. St. Peter is played by the renowned Egyptian actor, Omar Sharif (Lawrence of Arabia, Doctor Zhivago). The film illustrates the strong reaction of Romans and Jews from a political and religious standpoint, and it also deals with the immense obstacles Christianity encountered in the early stages of its development.

As a dedicated follower of Christ, Peter spreads the message of the Gospel across the land, often staying only one step ahead of those determined to persecute him. As the tension between Christians and Romans grows, blood runs in the streets. Peter and Paul meet and together they form a strong friendship in preaching about Christ.

While fleeing persecution in the Eternal City, Peter sees Jesus walking toward him saying, "Peter, I am coming to Rome, to be crucified again." Peter realizes he must follow Christ to the end, and returns to Rome to be crucified like his master.

This movie is not rated, but was created with an adult audience in mind. We would recommend Parental Guidance and that parents preview it before watching with children, as it does contain some violence.
