And a great storm of wind arose, and the waves beat into the boat, so that the boat was already filling. But he was in the stern, asleep on the cushion; and they woke him and said to him, "Teacher, do you not care if we perish?" And he awoke and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace! Be still!" And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. He said to them, "Why are you afraid? Have you no faith (Mark 4:37-40)?"

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

This powerful epic film depicts the life of now Blessed Carlo Gnocchi, an Italian priest who labored heroically to minister to the wounded and dying soldiers during World War II, and later to children victims of the war on the home front. While teaching students at the Gonzaga Institute in Milan, Fr. Gnocchi volunteered to be the military chaplain on the war front. After witnessing the horrors of the war, helping many suffering and dying soldiers, and miraculously escaping death himself, he returned to start a foundation for the many children who were victims of the war.

Starring Daniele Liotti (Saint Anthony), this film tells of Don Gnocchi's inspiring work with the students, the soldiers, and the children. His great legacy lives on today in the Don Carlo Gnocchi Foundation that provides medical care for thousands of patients in over 75 hospitals and clinics throughout Europe. He died in 1956 and was Beatified by Pope Benedict XVI in 2009.

Twelfth Sunday in Ordinary Time Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

As a non-swimmer, I can verify the fear that deep water whipped by storm winds is very real. It is almost contradictory that a storm on the Sea of Galilee, which was notorious for its storms, would strike fear in the hearts of experience-hardened fishermen. But evidently it did. We learn that a water swamped fishing boat easily frightened this chosen crew. It is delightfully ironic that the only Carpenter on the boat would be so unconcerned as to fall asleep. It was a deep sleep, of the kind visited on people with clear consciences like the Lord's. We know for sure that it took a hearty shoulder shake to wake Jesus up. Only to get scolded for His apparent nonchalance. "Don't you care that we are perishing?"

We don't have to imagine what Jesus asked them after He ended the storm. Mark gives it to us. "Why are you terrified? Do you not yet have faith?"

Amid this seemingly endless "storm" of the Covid pandemic and all the other "storms" that test our tranquility, Jesus could well ask us the same question, right? As grateful as we should be for the various vaccines, we must believe they are not enough for us and many people to block the "winds of anxiety." Saddest of all reactions has come that of many young people who have ended their "Covid fatigue" with suicide. Crossed off futures just like that. Akin to the lost futures of the millions of aborted babies. We have to bestir our baptismal faith and all its promises. Only the Man who was asleep on the boat can put an end to these and other evils.

Acknowledging today's arrival of the second Father's Day in a row with masked faces and sanitizers still in place, there is a special place of honor for all our fathers. They are the family leaders. Families are the bedrock of the worldwide family of the Church. We know the traditional family is under new and varied attack by segments of our society today. A good, strong, faith-filled Catholic father is a strong antidote to this cultural poison for his spouse and children. Such men have Jesus as their divine support and the Church along side.

As we combine the story of Our Lord's power over storms and His enduring example, with thoughts about the power of a present day good father's example, we can ponder this observation by Clarence Budington Kelland (d.1964) who was an American writer of fiction and short stories and who once described himself as "the best second rate writer in America." I think his praise of his father is first rate. This is what he wrote: "My father didn't tell me how to live. He lived and let me watch him do it."

God love you and give you His peace.

Happy Fathers Day!!

PRAYER FOR FATHERS

God our Father, through the intercession of St. Joseph, foster father of Your Son, Our Lord Jesus Christ, we give you thanks and praise for all fathers in the world.

We pray for them so that they may find courage and perseverance to balance work, family and faith in joy and sacrifice.

We ask you for an ever-increasing faithful and generous love of fathers to their respective wives and children. We ask you not only for their physical and material well-being, but also that they be authentic Christian fathers seeking holiness in the middle of the world so as to attain happiness here on earth and in heaven.

We pray for those whose children are lost or are suffering; may they know that the God of compassion walks with them in their sorrow.

We pray for men, especially our priests and monks, who exercise their paternity in a spiritual way and guide others with fatherly concern and advice.

We remember fathers, grandfather, and great grandfathers who are no longer with us but who live forever in our memory and nourish us with their love.

Bless them and may they rest in peace. Amen.
