Solemnity Of The Holy Trinity

Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

An enemy we cannot even see has won a battle with us, but hopefully not the war. You know its name for sure. In a relatively short time it has managed to change our way of living, our whole society, as well as the whole planet wherever humans live on it. Among its many devastating effects has been the severance, at least on the surface, of our very unity as a race. Thanks be to God and human ingenuity, we have devised an electronic avenue of communication and have at least kept in virtual touch. We have obeyed legitimate authority in keeping what we have learned to call "social distance," even though our every instinct wants to touch others and to be touched. We miss our handshakes, hugs and kisses, especially with those we love.

Our trio of Scriptures for this weekend's Masses speaks, however indirectly, of the incomparably mysterious union of the Three Divine Persons in our one God. No wonder we are frustrated by anything like a virus that keeps us from living our usual way. That is because we have been created in the image of a loving triune God.

Our authorities have been most complimentary of our efforts to stay separated by 2 yards from each other. The whole phenomenon has amazed them because, after all, it comes down to being their strong and wise suggestion, not yet being a civil mandate. But we know in our bones that such separation is the opposite of what God has in mind for us His creatures. We remain in the Church as one family under God. In Him we still trust that this pandemic will end. We know that through our intelligence and believe it through our Faith.

In the meantime, we cling to that Faith. What that faith tells us about the nature of God ultimately comes from God's Son. He was personally present on this planet more than twenty centuries ago, and still is mystically present among us as He promised. Without Christ's revelation, we might simply ascribe to God such things that the myths of Greece and Rome did, including weaknesses. Because Jesus sent us His Holy Spirit, we can have the confidence that comes from knowing the truth.

For example, we know that Our God is certainly omnipotent. Just looking at creation we find that easy to believe. We also admire God's creativity and imagination; and even His lighthearted sense of humor. After all, the same God who made the moon also crafted a crab that walks sideways and a bird that pecks hard at tree trunks for his livelihood.

That same God created you and me. We are often referred to as the "apex" of His visible creation, allowing for the angels of a still higher order. We know we are a mixture of strengths and weakness. We can be purposeful but procrastinating; peace-loving but warlike. Despite those possibilities, He still loves us. Just look at the nearest crucifix for proof of that.

So comforting to know that our God has revealed Himself as "big enough" to embrace us all. Perhaps the best psychological and spiritual outcome of the pandemic caused by Covid 19 will be to realize all of this about our God and ourselves with a new perspective. That will inevitably lead to a new and better way to ramp up our authentic Christian living. As always, we will do it best if we do it in the Name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

All Things are Possible for God by Fr. Joshua Waltz Talks: Conversion Stories

As a young man, the last thing Fr. Joshua Waltz ever thought he would be was a Catholic priest. But a series of unconnected choices ultimately led him to enter the seminary. In this talk, Fr. Waltz shares an incredible vocation story that involves heartbreak, robbers, Europe, and several miracles—all showing that there is nothing more exciting than a life lived for Jesus Christ.

An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.

Amen.

Sacred Heart Novena

NOVENA DATES:
June 10—June 18 ~ Feast Day June 19

Lord Jesus Christ, to Thy Most Sacred Heart I confide this intention (mention your request). Only look upon me, then do what Thy Heart inspires. Let Thy Sacred Heart decide. I count on Thee...I trust in Thee... I throw myself on Thy Mercy, Lord Jesus! Thou will not fail me. Sacred Heart of Jesus, I trust in Thee. Sacred Heart of Jesus, Thy Kingdom come. O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I have asked Thee for many favors, but I earnestly implore this one. Take it, place it in Thy open, broken, Heart, and when the Eternal Father looked upon it, covered with Thy Precious Blood, He will not refuse it. It will not longer be my prayers, but Thine, O Jesus. O Sacred Heart of Jesus, I place all my trust in Thee. Let me never be confounded. Amen.
 (Our Father, Hail Mary, Glory Be)
