

Eucharistic Revival

At the heart of the Eucharistic Revival is a rediscovery of and recommitment to excellence and reverence in the celebration of the Holy Mass. All parishes and Archdiocesan institutions are encouraged to send your current and new liturgical ministers to these training workshops as part of your observance of the Eucharistic Revival. Liturgical Music Workshop for Priests and Deacons Singing the Parts of the Mass

This workshop is directed to all priests and deacons. “The musical tradition of the universal Church forms a necessary or integral part of the solemn liturgy.” (Sacrosanctum Concilium 112). The focus of this workshop will be to highlight the importance of singing the parts of the Mass with a practical application of musical knowledge. Particular attention will be given to the dialogues, responses, and the singing of the Gospel on occasion and Preface.

Wednesday, November 16, 2022

Saint Helena Church, Blue Bell

7:00 PM to 9:00 PM in Main Church

Please register at: worship@archphila.org

Liturgical Music Workshop Singing the Celebration of the Sacraments

This workshop is directed to all engaged, including Principals and DRE's, in the preparation of liturgical music for the Sacraments, specifically Confirmation, Penance and Reconciliation, and First Holy Communion. Liturgical music is an integral part of formation in the faith. In this workshop, musical examples with an attentiveness to the appropriate texts of the rite will be presented, while keeping at the forefront the function of sacred music and how it serves the faith community liturgically, musically and pastorally.

Wednesday, March 29, 2023

Saint Helena Church, Blue Bell

7:00 PM to 9:00 PM in Main Church

Workshop for Liturgical Musicians

February 4, 2023, 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM

The Ars Celebrandi and Liturgical Music: A Necessary Connection for Parish Liturgical Musicians

This workshop is directed to all priests, deacons and parish musicians. The important connection between the Ars celebrandi and liturgical music will be demonstrated as the foundational principle to guide choices for liturgical music for the celebration of the Eucharist as well as for Weddings and Funerals. This connection will also be developed as an essential aid to authentic participation in the sacramental mysteries and the deepening of conversion to Christ.

Location: Saint Helena Parish, Bluebell, PA

Registration: Information about registration will be posted on the website for Office for Divine Worship, <https://www.odwphiladelphia.org/>, beginning September 1, 2022. Please register at: worship@archphila.org
