“Colleen has lived at Divine Providence Village since we opened in 1984. The ladies at Divine Providence Village have a wonderful quality of life. They receive 24/7 nursing care and Direct Care Support. We have a Behavioral Specialist; we offer Art and Music Therapy and so many different activities. The ladies are well cared for and live a happy life. None of this would be possible without the support of the Catholic Charities Appeal. Please know how grateful we are when you make your donation through the Appeal envelope. These are God’s special children, and we depend on the generosity of CCA supporters. Thank you!”

Giving Hope to God’s Special Children

“I love living at Divine Providence Village. The Sisters and staff here are like my family. I love to do everything here, like praying in the chapel, arts and crafts, hook rug, dancing, and singing. I like to do the dishes and set the table in my building. I also like to take care of my roommate because she is in a wheelchair; I help make her bed and clean our room. I am so happy here!” – Colleen, Divine Providence Village, Resident
